GARBAGE PLANT A NUISANCE.

Commissioners Approve the Recommendations as to the Crematory. The Commissioners have approved the recommendation of Health Officer Woodward, in regard to the report of Inspector Beaumont, relative to the complaint of certain citizens as to the nuisance emanating from the new Smith garbage crematory located on the grounds back of the old Naval Observatory. Dr. Woodward recommended the adoption of Inspector Beaumont's report, finding the crematory people guilty of failing to live up to their contract, to furnish a plant of 100 tons daily capacity and one that would be free from odor. The Commissioners' approval of the report therefore stamps the concern as a nuisance.

For some time complaints have reached the health officer that noxious odors were escaping from the furnace, and making the surrounding atmosphere disagreeable to the citizens of the vicinity. These complaints were all investigated and found to be well founded. About two weeks ago Inspector Beaumont was detailed by the health officer to watch the crematory and make daily reports. His reports confirmed the complaints of the citizens. The trouble is said to be due partly to an insufficient capacity and the consequent overcharging of the furnace, and also to an inadequate covering of the shells, resulting in the escape of the odor. Both these defects, it is said, can be overcome without serious difficulty.

The capacity of the furnace at present is between seventy-five and eighty tons daily, as against 100 tons daily capacity promised in the contract. The contractors have advanced the argument that they have not added the other twenty-five tons capacity because of the fact that they preferred to wait until the Commissioners took some action in the matter of the complaints.

The Commissioners will give a hearing to the crematory people at an early date.

SAVILLE-LEWIS NUPTIALS

They Are United in Marriage at St. Thomas' Church.

Vice President Hobart to Entertain a Party of Gentlemen. Notes and Personal.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Saville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Saville, to Mr. Fulton Lewis took place yesterday at high noon, at St. Thomas' Church, the Rev. Mr. Aspinwall officiating.

The church was adorned with quantities of red and white roses, palms and hydrangeas. The ushers, who were Mr. James Longstreet, Jr., Mr. Joseph Bradley, Mr. Frank Davis and Dr. Stuart, preceded the bride party to the altar, where they were met by the groom and his best man, Mr. Reeve Lewis.

The bridesmaids were Miss Esmeralda Cready, of Connecticut, and Miss Estlin Green, daughter of the late Mr. Oswald Green, of this city. They were attired similarly in white organdies, trimmed with dainty frills of the same. They wore large hats of white chip, trimmed with ribbons and white catenets. Their bouquets were of sweet peas.

The maid of honor, who immediately preceded the bride, wore a dainty frock of white mousseline with fluffy trimmings of lace and mousseline. Her large hat corresponded with those worn by the bridesmaids. The flowers carried were sweet peas.

The bride, who entered with her father, was strikingly handsome in her bridal robe of rich white satin, with its trimmings of point lace and orange blossoms, which had graced the bridegroom's mother. The bride's veil was caught to the dark hair with a wreath of orange blossoms, and white sweet peas were carried.

After the ceremony there was a wedding breakfast, attended only by the wedding party and the immediate families of the contracting pair.

The Third precinct patrol wagon went to the house on a run, only to find that the report grew out of a colored girl being threatened by a man armed with a pocket knife.

"Speakeasy" Bar Raided. Battle Johnson, a colored woman, was arrested last evening by Officer McDonnell, of the Eighth precinct, on a charge of keeping an unlawful bar. The police have for some time suspected the place on Ninth street, near Grand avenue, of being a "speakeasy," but it was not until recently that Officer McDonnell was able to secure the evidence necessary to support the charge. The woman will be arraigned in the police court this morning.

VARIETY AT CARROLL HALL.

Diversified Entertainment to Raise Funds for the Institute.

The talent of Carroll Institute gave a potpourri of athletics, music, drama and minstrelsy last night at the Carroll Hall, which was regarded as always the case, whenever that clever coterie combine to give an entertainment.

The program was opened with the "Lullaby" overture, played with splendid precision by the Carroll Institute Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Ben Johnson, and was followed by an Act Home, by the Misses Hathaway, Irwin, Rowland, Lackaye, Joyce and Scott-Smith. To meet the gentlemen of the dramatic club and minstrel.

As the curtain rose on a dainty drawing room scene, with the young hostesses and receiving party awaiting the arrival of their guests, the audience testified its appreciation by rounds of applause that continued as each "number" was announced by Butler Harry Leigh and made his entrance. The first of the series was a novel one and furnished a clever vehicle for the olio of songs, recitations and character sketches contributed by each visitor present, as well as the ladies themselves.

Mr. A. L. Stearns, a Washington boy who is playing an engagement this week at the Grand Opera House, gave instructions for "Lullaby," "Wang," and "The Heirloom," and was succeeded by Mr. Charles Bechtel with a baritone solo, which he sang with telling effect. Miss K. Irwin gave a recitation from "Owen Meredith," Mr. George Cox sang a song about sweethearts, and Mr. George O'Connor and Mr. Percy F. Leach divided the honors as singers of minstrel ditties. Miss Edna Scott-Smith sang a solo, and there was a dialect sketch by Mr. Charles Green, and an excellent darky sermon by Mr. Harry Leigh.

The second part of the program was devoted to "A Few Moments in the Gym," with acrobatics by Prof. Joyce and Messrs. Crutcher, O'Donoghue, McAfee, and Morris. The third part was a musical offering by Messrs. Nelson and Griffin. The light-weight boxing by Messrs. Downey and Blitstein, and the song and dance trio by Messrs. Leach, O'Connor and McCarthy, scored a deserved encore.

The entertainment was given for the purpose of raising funds to enlarge the stage of the Carroll Institute Hall.

MR. WIGHT'S NEW YORK TRIP.

Municipal Affairs There Compared with District Institution. Commissioner Wight has returned to his duties at the District building after an absence of three days in New York and Philadelphia. While in New York he visited all of the police stations and found most of them to be old and unfit for the service for which they are intended.

One station, however, in the Ninth precinct, is being erected on modern principles, at a cost of about $60,000. The police of New York get $1,400 per annum and are required to purchase three uniforms a year. It was observed by Commissioner Wight that the New York police spends more on his police department than this city spends for its entire municipal service.

The police force of New York costs that city between $6,000,000 and $7,000,000. There are about 6,500 members of the force. About 1,400 of the members of the present force were appointed under the new regime. Appointments are made and dismissals ordered on the merit system. The men are required to maintain a neat appearance and are prohibited from wearing their hats in the streets.

The Commissioner Wight called upon Col. Warren, in charge of the street cleaning department of New York, and learned that the city was divided into sections, for the purpose of street cleaning, and a man employed as sweeper must clean 7,500 square yards in the residence portion of the city four times a day, or 5,000 square yards in the business section of the city twice a day.

RENT BY AN EARTHQUAKE
Angell Mountain, Near Pembroke, Va., Split by Its Force.

Salt Wells Dried Up—Shocks Continued Two Days—Ignorant People Crazy With Fear.

Roanoke, Va., June 3.—From Giles county comes most astounding reports of damage done by the earthquakes of Monday. There is a large mountain near Pembroke, Va., called Angell Mountain, on the top of which is an extinct crater about one mile in length and one-half mile in width, which was filled with water and called Angell Lake. It has been one of the most celebrated resorts in Virginia, hundreds of visitors annually flocking to the shores which have been built about it. During the earthquake Angell Mountain was rent asunder for about one mile, the fissure at some points being five and six feet wide. One result of this split in the earth's crust has been the gradual sinking of the lake, until now it is reported that it is entirely dry.

Near Pearisburg, a rich valley, extending out to the Tennessee line, in which are located the salt wells of the celebrated Mathieson alkali works. It was learned yesterday evening that the wells which had been supplying the salt works with water are dry, and the company, which represents over $1,000,000 capital and gives employment to from 1,500 to 2,000 hands, is at a standstill.

No less than three separate and distinct shocks have been felt in that section during the last two days, and the people so terrified that they are camping in out-houses and tents, fearing to occupy their dwellings.

This section of the country is some distance from the railroad, and there is no telegraphic communication, but the information here given is reported by responsible parties, who have just returned from a visit through that locality.

One man says it is impossible to picture the abject terror of the negroes and illiterate whites. They cannot account for the disturbances, and are wandering and praying around the country in a half-dazed condition. From all sides of the valley and mountain come reports of homes being shaken to the ground, and that the springs, which have made Giles county famous, are running muddy water, and in a great many instances have gone entirely dry.

CLEVELAND DECLINES TO ACT.

Will Not Serve Venezuela in the Arbitration Proceedings.

Ex-President Cleveland has written a letter to President Crook, of Venezuela, declining to act for the republic as counsel in the arbitration proceedings.

When Mr. Cleveland was requested to accept the offer of the Venezuelan government he was assured that he would not be required to make an argument before arbitrators, and that his counsel only would be wanted. Mr. Cleveland, however, declined the proposition.

ON A MISSION FROM GOMEZ

Capt. Smith, of the Cuban Army Tells a Graphic Story.

He Will Speak Tonight at the New National Theater—His Views on the Cuban Situation.

Capt. W. D. Smith, an American, who has been for two years serving in the Cuban army with Gen. Maximo Gomez, was before the Senate Subcommittee on Foreign Relations yesterday for nearly two hours, telling the story of his life in Cuba. He described the present Cuban situation in detail as he viewed it. Mr. Smith is emphatically of the opinion that Spain will never be able to conquer the island.

It was learned last night that Capt. Smith is here "on a mission" from Gen. Gomez. He expressed the most definite opinion yet given on the probable duration of the war. He was quoted by a friend last night as having said that the struggle would be over if the United States recognized the belligerent rights of the Cuban patriots. If, however, the belligerent rights were not recognized the war would result nevertheless in victory for the insurgents, but the end would, of course, be deferred much longer.

Capt. Smith attended the lawn party in aid of the cause last evening. He will speak tonight at the New National Theater, where he will relate some of his experiences in the war.

CUBAN MEMORIAL MEETING.

American Martyrs to Spanish Oppression to Be Honored.

A mass meeting will be held tonight at the National Theater in memory of the American citizens who have died in the cause of Cuba. The martyrs whose names will be honored are Gen. Jose Maria T. Aguirre, Col. Carlos E. Aguirre, Col. Gordon, Correspondent Crosby, of the Chicago Record; Correspondent Charles Gavin, Major W. Osmond and Dr. Ruiz. The speakers will be Gen. E. Evans, invited to preside, and there will be on the platform the following named well-known business men, who will act as vice presidents:

Hon. Charles Turner, W. H. Holman, John L. Longworth, B. E. Benson, Frank Hume, James L. Norris, H. E. Evans, Noble D. Lerner, George T. Budd, Hon. C. Fletcher, Col. R. B. Boyd, Col. Charles E. Capshaw, Thomas Jarvis, S. Kann, Benjamin W. Gray, J. A. Lattrell, Emerson S. Smith, Harry D. Barker, Bridge, Charles Bann, William L. Egan, G. A. Kueck, J. C. Erpog, Joseph Auerbach, Dr. Walt Hummel, William H. Warner, Charles Ruff, D. N. Walford, Eljah Smith, G. Moore, J. S. Bigelow, H. C. Karr, Walter B. Williams, J. L. Johnson, B. F. Guy, M. J. H. Smith, James S. Davis, E. T. Davis, T. O. Jones, John Marr, Herman Koss and Albert Lake.

The meeting will be held under the auspices of the Cuban League and will be called to order by the president of the league, Gen. William H. Brown, who will introduce Gen. Evans as the permanent chairman. Letters will be read showing clearly the horrible condition that exists in Cuba and the shocking atrocities that are being daily committed there by the Spanish oppressor, and a number of addresses will be delivered.

B. & O. SUMMER TOURS.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad has recently issued to its many friends and patrons a volume of 200 pages, entitled "Summer Tours." The book is richly illustrated, and contains a description of the various points of historical interest along the route, and contains hundreds of reproductions of the picturesque landscapes of the country through which the road passes.

The work is replete with interesting descriptions of the beautiful scenery of the Adirondacks, the Alleghenies, the White Mountains, and the Catskills; the quaint, curious and wonderful formations and bewildering windings of the famous caverns of Luray; the attractions of Saratoga and the famous spa, and the various connecting railroads of the country.

Copies of the book may be had upon application to the district passenger agent.

THE SPANARDS IN CUBA.

Hon. A. G. Riddle to Deliver a Lecture on the Subject.

Hon. A. G. Riddle, the veteran lawyer, will tell what he personally knows of Spanish rule in Cuba as soon as a suitable place can be secured. He was a consul on the island, and his duties at that time gave him exceptional facilities for the study of the subject. He will speak at the Spanish and the suffering of the Cubans.

The following committee was chosen: Messrs. E. E. Moore, J. E. Miles and A. C. Trophagen.

The following committee was appointed on the part of the assembly to arrange for the dedication of the Rea Monument: Messrs. J. K. Potter, W. E. Carr, Joseph B. Fenton, J. F. O'Mara and W. L. Bailey.

The executive board reported that the difference between Capt. E. S. Randall and Painters' Assembly, No. 1798, Knights of Labor, had been amicably settled.

TIMAYENIS JURY OUT.

Unable to Agree and Locked Up Over Night.

At 2:40 o'clock yesterday afternoon the case of the United States against Timayenis J. Timayenis was given to the jury, and they retired to weigh it.

The jury remained in their chambers until 4:30 o'clock, when they were requested to retire. In their deliberations the jury was unable to agree and a satisfactory conclusion was not in sight.

The chief justice ordered the jury to retire for the night and that probably in the silent watches between sundown and dawn they could arrive at some verdict, and at 10 o'clock this morning they will acquit the court with their finding in the case.

Street Fighters Locked Up. There was a lively fight last night at Tenth and B streets northwest, the participants being Sonny Ward, James T. Crann and William Craven, white-knucklers. The fracas was started, the police say, by Craven jumping into Ward's wagon and trying to drive away with it. All parties were arrested. Craven's wagon will be called upon to face a charge in the police court. Policeman Herndon arrested Craven on Tuesday night for assaulting Arthur Brown and breaking the windows in Mrs. Brown's saloon, No. 943 B street, and was fined $10.

IN THE HOTEL LOBBIES.

"I have a friend living in a suburb of New York," said Mr. William J. Barter, of this city at the National last night, "who is blessed with a grove of chestnut trees, which shade his front lawn. The trees bear $5 or $6 worth of chestnuts yearly, and the nuts attract hordes of mongrel boys, who gather them without other expense to the owner than the cost of the ineffectual labor of trying to keep the boys away. On a rainy Friday last fall such an unusual number of boys appeared, that inquiry was made as to why they were not at school. The reply was that school didn't keep on wet days."

"It appears to be a common practice, about New York and Boston, not to have school on rainy days. No doubt the objection is that the children catch cold sitting in damp clothes, but when the unschooled boys go chattering in the rain the numerous side of the precaution shows up plain and large."

Referring to the placing under arrest of Prof. Fancilli of the Marine Band during the parade Memorial Day, Mr. W. E. Stott, at the Regent, yesterday said:

"If the facts of the case are as published, I think that Lieut. Draper was clearly in the right to take cognizance of the breach of discipline and order the professor to report to the commanding officer."

"The leader of the Marine Band is an enlisted man, and as such is certainly subject to the orders of his superior officers. I am informed that at all Army posts, the band and selection of music is under the direction of the post adjutant, and I presume the same rule holds good in the Marine Corps. Even supposing Lieut. Draper to have been in the wrong, Prof. Fancilli, as an enlisted man, should have obeyed the orders of his superior officer, and subsequently had redress through regular military channels."

"Discipline and absolute obedience to orders is the very essence of efficiency, and I think that the usefulness of the system becomes so thoroughly impaired as to render a well-organized military body an unwieldy and useless mass."

"I went down the Potomac yesterday," said Mr. Paul Hornum, of Fort Detrick, Mexico, at the National, "and I saw a buzzard for the first time since I have been in the United States. We have thousands of these birds at Vera Cruz, and they perch on the horse posts and watch for an opportunity to swoop down upon the garbage which is thrown out by the horse stalls, and it disappears immediately. These are the scavengers of the city, and the penalty for the injury or killing of one is very severe. In fact, I have known boys to be imprisoned for nearly twenty days for killing one of these birds. 'Yes,' he continued, 'the San Juan del Rio is still there. It is now used as a penitentiary for life sentenced prisoners. Seldom, if ever, has a prisoner been known to escape. The Gulf of Mexico is a very dangerous place at this point, and it is practically impossible to swim ashore. When the wind is blowing in the right direction, the foreigners go out in boats shark shooting, and it is considered great sport. The prisoners in the San Juan del Rio are sold as curiosities to the public, and they are sold to the visitors. They will sometimes spend an entire year on one of these caravans. The purchase money is divided with the keeper, and the prisoner's share is usually used for the purchase of tobacco or other luxuries."

"I understand," said Mr. Charles Constable, of New York, at the Metropolitan, last night, "that the syndicate which controls Madison Square Garden, in New York, is presently preparing to raise the price of the building to $1,000,000. There is a serious talk of pulling down the building. New York city certainly needs such a structure, and I should think that with all the immensely wealthy people in that city, some could be found who would sufficiently public and patriotic to build the building even at a slight loss. Madison Square Garden has been talked of for many years, and I should think very much to see it razed to the ground."

ORGANIZED LABOR AND CUBA

District Assembly No. 66 Arranging for a Mass Meeting.

A Committee Appointed for that Purpose—Dedication of the Rea Monument.

District Assembly No. 66, Knights of Labor, met last evening at Plasterers' Hall. There was a large attendance, as it was generally known that some action would be taken looking to the holding of a mass meeting of the forces of organized labor of the District for the purpose of giving expression to their sympathy for the Cubans in their struggle for freedom.

At the last meeting of the assembly, it will be remembered, resolutions strongly recommending the recognition of the Cubans as belligerents were adopted. The subject was again discussed last evening, and resulted in the appointment of a committee to make arrangements for a mass meeting to be held within the next week or ten days, the definite time and place to be announced later.

The following committee was chosen: Messrs. E. E. Moore, J. E. Miles and A. C. Trophagen.

The following committee was appointed on the part of the assembly to arrange for the dedication of the Rea Monument: Messrs. J. K. Potter, W. E. Carr, Joseph B. Fenton, J. F. O'Mara and W. L. Bailey.

The executive board reported that the difference between Capt. E. S. Randall and Painters' Assembly, No. 1798, Knights of Labor, had been amicably settled.
